THE DEVELOPMENTAL & INTELLECTUAL ROLE OF CIVIL SOCIETY INSTITUTIONS AND THEIR IMPLICATIONS FOR ACHIEVING INTELLECTUAL SECURITY: NGOS MODEL

Prof. Said Ismail Ali* - Prof. Mohammed Ahmed Ismail

Dr. Mohammed Darweesh Darweesh

Dr. Eman Abdel Rady Abo El Hassan*

Researcher: Susan Fathi Mohammed Hassen**

Abstract

The aim of the research is to define the developmental and intellectual role of civil society organizations, with the NGOs as a model for implementation. This comes true through demonstrating the concept of NGOs, their role in development & the concept of intellectual security. The research used the descriptive approach. The

* Professor of Foundations of Education Faculty of Education - Ain Shams University.

 Professor of Foundations of Education- Faculty of Education - Suez University.

 Associate Professor of Foundations of Education - Faculty of Education - Suez University.

* Lecturer of Foundations of Education - Faculty of Education - Suez University.

 Researcher for a PhD in Education.

research reveals that: The NGOs have a role in achieving cultural and political development by carrying out real and effective activities that contribute to the promotion of the cultural level of societies. They also play a role in achieving creative human development and achieving human security, which is considered a goal sought by all societies.

Key words:

1- Civil society organizations

2- NGOs

3- Intellectual security